

Content

Abstract	7
Acknowledgements	9
Introduction	11
Chapter One
Dimensions of Interference:
From Andean Oral Discourse to Choral Writing	33
I. Questionable Sources	33
II. An Underlying Premise	40
III. The Quipucamayos, the "Accounts", and an Incomplete Dubbing	47
IV. Betanzos: From Epic Representation to Choral Writing	55
V. Choral Writing and "Epic" in the Ynstruccion de Titu Cusi	66
Chapter Two
Comentarios Reales: From Choral Writing to Foundational Discourse
	79
I. A Necessary Question and an Entrance into the Labyrinth	79
II. Superimposed and Counterpoised Voices in the Foundational Account	83
III. The Importance of Formulas in the Comentarios	93
1. The Formula of Foundation	99
2. Formulas of "Requirement"	106
3. Formulas of Validation	111
IV. The Recitation, Prosodic Consequences, and Semantic Couplets: (Re)reading the Princeps Editions	122
V. Preliminary Conclusions	136
Chapter Three
A Syncretic Topology: Semantic and Symbolic Aspects of the Comentarios
	141
I. Spiritual Ages and Incan Symbolism	141
II. Time and Space as Semantic Categories	165

III. Why Pachakamaq and not Wiraqucha ?: Etymology and History	169
IV. The Agrarian Perspective and Images of Nature	182

Chapter Four

The Cross, Thunderbolt and Rainbow: Iconographic Transpositions and Underlying Symbols 201

I. The Modern Crusade and the Return of Wiraqucha	202
II. The Fortress of Saqsawaman : The Thunderbolt Yields to the Rainbow	227
III. Saint Bartholomew and the Two-Headed Bird	239
IV. The Diagonal of Truth: Gonzalo Pizarro and the Route of Wiraqucha	248

Epilogue

Between the Labyrinth's Exit and the Cornerstone: Towards a Critique of the National Subject 279

I. From Analysis of Text to a Hierarchy of Nations	279
II. Surviving the Melancholy	291
III. The Structure of Discursive Foundation	297

Bibliography 307