

CONTENTS

Introduction
Revisiting the Colonial Question in Latin America Mabel Moraña and Carlos A. Jáuregui	7
Notes on Primitive Imperial Accumulation. Ginés de Sepúlveda, Las Casas, Fernández de Oviedo Alberto Moreiras	15
Forgotten Colonial Subjects Lúcia Helena Costigan	39
Spanish Women in First New Chronicle and Good Government: The Intersections of Culture and Gender Raquel Chang-Rodríguez	59
The “Indian Tumult” of 1692 in the Folds of Baroque Celebrations. Historiography, Popular Subversion, and Creole Agency in Colonial México Mabel Moraña	79
“We’re Out There Taking Care of Freedom”: Slave Resistance in Nineteenth-Century Brazil João José Reis	95
Hybridity, Genre, Race Joshua Lund	113
Between Prospero and Caliban: Colonialism, Postcolonialism, and Inter-identity Boaventura de Souza Santos	139
Countering Caliban. Fernández Retamar and the Postcolonial Debate Nadia Lie	185

Reconfigurations of Empire in a World-Hegemonic Transition: The 1898 Spanish-Cuban-American-Filipino War Agustin Laó-Montes	209
The Retroaction of the Postcolonial: The Answer of the Real and the Caribbean as Thing. (An Essay on Critical Fiction) Iris M. Zavala.....	241
On Feminisms and Postcolonialisms: Reflections South of the Rio Grande R. Aída Hernández-Castillo	257
Postcolonial Representations of the New World (B)order Silvia Nagy-Zekmi.....	281
Note on the Editors and Contributors	293