

VÍCTOR MANUEL SANCHIS AMAT, Y todo esto pasó con nosotros: reescrituras del mundo indígena en la recepción literaria de Tlatelolco 1968. Madrid: Iberoamericana/ Frankfurt am Main: Vervuert. 2020. 219 pp.

[...]

Sanchis' well-researched, timely study follows the fiftieth anniversary of the Tlatelolco massacre, which highlights the latter's salience in Mexico today. [...] Sanchis thus illuminates the unforeseen fruitful consequences of Tlatelolco traumas, recent and past—an outpouring of creativity, revitalizing a national literary and cultural tradition, and strengthening resistance to a still-hegemonic Mexican State.

MELISA MOORE

University of Exeter.

